BRIDE OF YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

MRS. EMMET C. GUDER, Wife of Paymaster Guder, U. S. N., who was Miss Genevieve Walsh.

of North Carolina, were married in the ballroom at the Highlands.

Mrs. Russell of St. Patrick's Church performed the ceremony, which was preceded by a half-hour musical program. The room was decorated to represent a rose garden, with pink roses, palms and ferns, while the walls were sprayed over with smilies.

A stringed orchestra played behind a screen of vines.

The bride wore a gown of ivory-tinted satin, made with a court train falling from the shoulders, and a long tunic of gossamer lace caught with orange blossoms.

The bridesmaids wore a gown of white tulle and lace, with long tulle sleeves.

Her veil was held with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white lilies.

The best man, Mr. J. Pearson Loose of Philadelphia, was the only civilian among the men of the bride party.

The others, all navy men, were Lieut. Todd, Lieut. Lee and Dr. Wheeler of the U. S. S. Mayflower, and Ensign Ford of the U. S. S. Dolphin, who acted as ushers. All wore the special tulle dress uniform of the navy.

A large reception followed, Mr. and Mrs. Guder will be at home after June 1 at 1757 K street northwest.

PASTOR'S HOME DYNAMITED.

Lithuanian Church Minister Had Ignored Demands for Money.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., April 6.—The house of Rev. J. V. Kudirka, pastor of the Lithuanian Church at Kingston, near here, was dynamited last night. The charge tore away the front of the building, but failed to injure the priest, who sat in his study but ten feet away. Seven letters demanding money have been received by the priest during the past month, but he has ignored them. The state constabulary is searching for the dynamiter.
